

Middlesex Canal
 Courtesy of Center for Lowell History

Boston Sept 28 1793

We the subscribers agree to become associates and Proprietors in the Middlesex Canal according to the number of Shares set by us severally against our names, agreeing to be subjected therein, to the regulations of the act of Incorporation of said Propriety, and such Rules and bye Laws as shall be established by said Propriety.
 No one person is to subscribe for more than Twenty Shares, and any one having subscribed on another paper is to have no interest hereafter. This paper is to receive subscriptions for two hundred shares only Two Dollars to be paid for each share on subscription.
 Names of subscribers No. of Shares Sum paid.

Names of subscribers	No. of Shares	Sum paid.
John Hancock	Twenty	Forty Dollars paid
James Wendell	Five	Ten Dollars paid
David Freeman	Five	Ten Dollars paid
Wm Tucker	Five	Ten Dollars paid
Wm Smith	Twenty	Forty Dollars paid
John Derby	Twenty	Forty Dollars paid
Wm Weston	Twenty	Forty Dollars paid
Samuel Dexter	Five	paid
James Mather	Five	paid Ten Dollars
John Weston	Twenty	paid 40 Dollars
George Blake	Five	paid Ten Dollars
John Tucker	Five

